Q1.

Here are four shapes on a grid.

Write the letters of all the shapes that have only two acute angles.

_____

1 mark

Q2.

Here is a number.

9,658,214

Tick the statements that are true.

The digit 5 represents 50,000	☐
The value of the digit 9 is nine hundred thousands.	☐
The digit 6 represents 6 millions.	☐
The value of the digit 2 is twenty tens.	☐

2 marks

Q3.

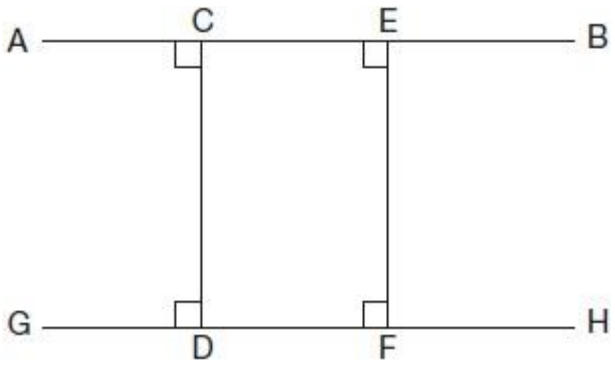

Emma thinks of a number. She says,

What number did Emma think of?

1 mark

Q4.

Tick all the correct statements.

AB is parallel to CD ☐

GH is parallel to AB ☐

CD is perpendicular to GH ☐

EF is perpendicular to CD ☐

1 mark

Q5.

The temperature in a freezer is −40 °C.

The temperature increases by 10 °C.

What is the new temperature?

°C

1 mark

Q6.

Jack buys milk and orange juice from a shop.

He pays with a £5 note.

How much change does Jack get?

Show your method

£

2 marks